

CHANNEL GALE IS BEGINNING TO LAY TUGS SUCCESS IN TAKING THE MARIE HENRIETTA IN TOW.

Steamer Had Been Drifting Unmanageable in the Storm Since Friday, With Many Passengers.

DOVER, England, Feb. 3.—The terrific gale which has been sweeping the western coast of Europe for several days is abating somewhat today.

The mail steamer Marie Henrietta, which plies between this place and Ostend, and which has been drifting about the Channel in an unmanageable condition since Friday, had another terrible night last night.

This morning she finally got in tow of the tugs which have been hanging around her, and proceeded to Ostend.

Boatmen say the taking in tow of the vessel was a splendid feat of seamanship, owing to the narrow waters and the disabled condition of the Marie Henrietta.

Mr. Wheeler Got Rid of His Rheumatism.

"During the winter of 1898 I was lame in my joints, in fact all over my body, that I could hardly hobble around, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Expeller, from the first application I began to get well, and was cured and have worked steadily all the year."
